DAY 2: Gangtok

After Breakfast – Start Day Excursion

The day begins with breakfast at the hotel.

Guests prepare for a high-altitude excursion, so warm clothing and valid ID proofs are recommended.

Visit to Tsomgo Lake

Tsomgo Lake is a breathtaking glacial lake located at an altitude of about 12,400 ft. Surrounded by snow-covered mountains for most of the year, the lake reflects changing colours with the sky and is considered sacred by locals.

Visit to Baba Mandir

Next, proceed to Baba Mandir, a revered memorial dedicated to Late Captain Harbhajan Singh. The site holds strong spiritual significance and offers panoramic mountain views along with stories of courage and belief.

Proceed Towards Nathula Pass (Subject to Permit & Weather)

Continue the journey towards Nathula Pass, one of the highest motorable roads in the world on the Indo–China border.

The visit is strictly subject to permit approval, weather conditions and road accessibility.

Return to Gangtok by Evening

After completing the sightseeing, guests return to Gangtok by evening.

The return drive offers another chance to enjoy the dramatic mountain scenery.

Overnight Stay: Gangtok

Guests are advised to rest well after a high-altitude day.
